

LOCAL AND COMMUNITY HISTORY MONTH

Historical Structure Resources

Join us for an introduction to learn how to use city resources for researching historical structures.

University Park Branch Library

Tuesday, May 2, 7 P.M.

Art Walk

Nine local history organizations will have activity booths, and guest speakers will include local historian Dr. Wayne Wood, and Jacksonville Historical Society Executive Director Emily Lisska. Florida musician Chris Kahl will perform.

Main Library

Wednesday, May 3, 5:30 p.m.

Memories of Matthew Gilbert Football

Earl Kitchings, motivational speaker, author and writer of sports record books will talk about the historic 1958 football championship of Matthew Gilbert High School.

Brentwood Branch Library

Friday, May 12, Noon

Archaeological Institute of America

Melva Price with the Archaeological Institute of America will teach us about the history of the organization their mission of promoting an understanding of archaeology, as well as, preserving cultural heritage.

Beaches Branch Library,

Friday May 12, Noon

Hollywood East and The Flying Ace screening

Norman Studios will guide a screening of Hollywood East—a documentary about the silent film industry in Jacksonville, and The Flying Ace—a silent film produced at Norman Studios in Arlington. Movie goers are encouraged to come in costume!

Main Library

Saturday, May 20, 2 p.m.

An Evening of Film History:

Featuring Historic Norman Studios

Did you know that Arlington has Hollywood history? Historic Norman Studios, located in the Old Arlington neighborhood, will present a program on the history of the film studio, its historic significance, and preservation efforts.

Regency Square Branch Library

Wednesday, May 24, 6 P.M.

