

Learn Conversational Japanese @ YOUR LIBRARY

In celebration of Asian Pacific American Heritage Month, learn the basics of Nihongo, the national language of Japan. These interactive classes include access to online language-learning, practice conversations, study resources, and cultural immersion.

Class Features:

- Transparent Language Online instruction
- Native language speaker/facilitator
- Fun, adult learning in welcoming environment
- Popular topics such as shopping, travel and food

Saturday, May 13 and 20

11 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Pablo Creek Regional Library

E-Classroom

13295 Beach Blvd 32246

No registration necessary. Seating is limited and classes are first come, first served.
Basic computer skills are required.

For information email jple-services@coj.net

jaxpubliclibrary.org

Start Here. Go Anywhere.