

EXHIBIT

June 4 – July 8

Main Library, Fourth Floor Atrium
303 Laura Street N.

The 2017 exhibit highlights the contributions of African-Americans to the Navy and the Tuskegee Air Women.

PROGRAMS

Join members of the Buffalo Soldiers Historical Society for a discussion about the creation of the Buffalo Soldiers and the contributions of African-Americans to the U. S. military conflicts from the Revolutionary War to the present.

Thursday, June 1, 6 p.m.

Willowbranch Branch Library

Thursday, June 22, 6:30 p.m.

Webb Wesconnett Regional Library

Thursday, July 13, 6 p.m.

Regency Branch Library

Wednesday, July 26, 6:30 p.m.

South Mandarin Branch Library

A LEGACY OF HONOR AND VALOR

OPENING

Sunday, June 4 at 2 p.m.

Main Library

Hicks Auditorium, Conference Center Level

Join us for the opening program featuring historian, curator, author and lecturer Harold "Hari" Jones. Jones is one of the foremost experts on African-Americans in the Civil War and has appeared in more than 50 television programs and documentaries airing on CSPAN, Fox News, NBC, PBS, the American Heroes Channel, the History Channel, and the Smithsonian Channel, including the Peabody Award-winning The African Americans: Many Rivers to Cross with Henry Louis Gates.

