ONGOING ACTIVITIES

I Spy!

What do you see? Altered Objects artist Crystal Floyd's work "I Spy" features many items to pique your curiosity. If you can name at least 20 of the objects in the case, the artist will send you a personalized postcard. One prize per person while supplies last.

How Many?

Altered Objects artist Mark Creegan has many small objects featured in his work "Retrospective." Can you count how many? Guess correctly and you can pick a prize. One prize per person while supplies last.

Jovian Treasure Historical Society Scavenger Hunt

Are you an adventurer up for exploration? Join the Jovian Treasure Historical Society! All it takes to be a member is answering five easy questions. Pick up the form at the Jax Makerspace desk and look around the Jovian Treasures exhibit for the clues. Turn in the form to the desk to receive a members-only commemorative coin. Your name will also be entered to win a prize from the Museum of Science and History.

JAX MAKERSPACE | JULY EVENTS

SPECIAL EVENTS

Art Walk @ Main Library

Wednesday, July 5, 5 – 8:30 p.m.

Art Walk at the Main Library occurs on the first Wednesday of the month from 5 – 8:30 p.m. on the entire first floor. New and exciting events are featured each month including special performances, Jax Makerspace fun and art exhibits.

Artist at Work: Roosevelt Watson III

Thursday, July 6 & 20, 11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Every other Thursday in July you can find artist Roosevelt Watson III painting on his mural, "How Did You Play a Hand," commissioned by the Mayor's Young Advisory Council. You can play one by lending yours! Roosevelt is collecting more hand prints. Come one and come all into the Jax Makerspace and you can put your hand print on the community inspired mural.

Artists at Work: Fake News

Wednesday, July 12, 5 – 6:30 p.m.

In an age of multiple media outlets, including traditional and DIY channels, how do you know who and what to trust? What exactly is fake news and where does it come from? Marks Gray shareholder and media attorney Ed Birk will provide helpful information to assist you in creating your own determination. In this program you will learn how to spot fake news by creating your own, as well as how to make critical assessments.

Artist at Work: Altered Objects Artist Panel Discussion

Wednesday, July 19, 5 – 7 p.m.

Saturday, July 22, 1 – 3 p.m.

Found objects derive their identity as art from the designation placed upon them by the artist and from the social history that comes with the object. Join Altered Objects artists Matthew Abercrombie, Mark Creegan, Crystal Floyd, and Roosevelt Watson III as they talk more about their specific installations as part of the exhibition and the challenges faced with working on art outside the canvas.

Artists At Work: Jovian Treasures Panel Discussion

Saturday, July 22, 4 – 5:30p.m.

Fact or Fiction? Critical thought is the name of the game and the makers of the exhibition Jovian Treasures, will tell you the what, why and how of their artwork. Join the UNF Enlivened Spaces class in a panel discussion moderated by nationally-renowned sculptor Jenny K. Hager.
