PLACE* BOOK SERIES

Three-Month Book Club Series – Join the Club, Free!

Meetings/Discussions at 6:30 p.m.
REGENCY SQUARE BRANCH LIBRARY
Meeting Room A

In this book club meets science café, we'll explore fictional outcomes of what could become a reality with climate change. Read a different book and attend the meeting each month. Join with University of Florida Professor and Marine Biologist Dr. Maia McGuire to discuss the book and possible implications for humankind. Free copies of all books will be available for participants on a first-come, first-served basis at the informational meeting.
