

College Financial Aid 101

So you've found the college of your dreams...Awesome!

But, now comes the hard part...do you know how to pay for it?

We know that college application season can be a stressful, overwhelming and confusing time. Don't panic! Come learn from someone who worked on the inside! Jennifer Philips, a veteran college aid administrator, will provide parents and students of all ages with insider tips on securing the best possible financial aid package. She will explain the various student loans, grants and scholarships available, the critical financial aid forms and deadlines, the various components of a financial aid offer and how to best compare and appeal offers in extenuating circumstances.
