SCORE.... Business Knowledge @ Cora J. Belden Library

SCORE provides free, in-depth business counseling for small businesses. SCORE provides assistance with starting a business, writing a business plan, and planning for expansion.

SCORE is a volunteer, non-profit association affiliated with the Small Business Administration.

SCORE counselors can help you succeed in business by offering FREE advice and counseling on:

- Selecting a legal structure
- Securing funding
- Preparing a business plan
- Developing marketing and sales strategies
- Working in international trade
- Using internet and web site facilities
- Leveraging blogs and social networks
- Buying or selling a business
- Choosing a specific branch of an industry
- Understanding day-to-day operations of a particular business
- Managing business operations and personnel
- Learning about not-for-profit organizations
- Exploring various SBA programs and their availability
- And much, much more!
