

Uplifting Reads

Eleanor Oliphant Is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman

A loner and an IT guy assist an elderly accident victim, forging a friendship that saves all three from isolation and unhappiness.

The Keeper Of Lost Things by Ruth Hogan

A charming, quietly moving debut novel that explores the promises we make and break and the surprising connections that bind us.

The Lido by Libby Page

An anxiety-riddled reporter is assigned to cover the closing of a local center and bonds with an 86-year-old widow.

The Trouble With Goats And Sheep by Joanna Cannon

When their neighbor disappears, ten-year-olds Grace and Tilly decide to take matters into their own hands to find her.

The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry by Rachel Joyce

Harold Fry is convinced that he must deliver a letter to an old love in order to save her.

The Music Shop by Rachel Joyce

Frank, the owner of a music shop in a suburban community, resists the chance of a relationship with a young woman who could heal the old wounds from his past.

Three Things About Elsie by Joanna Cannon

An injured woman meditates on her complicated relationship with a best friend when a man they believed was dead joins her retirement community.

How To Stop Time by Matt Haig

A man who has survived for centuries considers defying his rule against falling in love when he becomes entranced by a captivating colleague.

Want more?

Speak to us at the Adult Services desk or request a personalized book list from Your Next Great Read!