

Join the Friends of Williamsburg Regional Library Foundation

The Dewey Decibel Concert Series is made possible with the generous support of the Friends of Williamsburg Regional Library Foundation.

Are you interested in becoming a member of the Friends of WRL Foundation or in making a donation to support the library? Head to www.wrl.org/give or inquire at any public service desk in either library building.

Keep In Touch With Your Library

Are you interested in learning more about all of the exciting things happening at Williamsburg Regional Library this fall? Sign up for WRL-info, our weekly e-mail newsletter that includes the full line-up of upcoming events at both library buildings. From concerts to movies to children's programs, there's something for everyone. We even provide information about our digital resources, art exhibits, and reading recommendations. Sign up today at www.wrl.org/wrlinfo.

The Dewey Decibel Concert Series returns to Williamsburg Regional Library this fall for another incredible season. This year, thanks to the support of the Friends of WRL Foundation, all ticketed shows are $5 for the general public.

Additionally, many free, unticketed shows round out this season's line-up.

All shows take place at the Williamsburg Library Theatre unless otherwise noted.

Williamsburg Library

515 Scotland St.

Williamsburg, Virginia 23185 | 757.259.4070

www.wrl.org

Air Force Bands: Heritage Winds

8/28, 7:30 p.m.

FREE

Heritage Winds is the woodwind quintet section of the United States Air Force Heritage of America Band. As professional airman-musicians, the members of Heritage Winds are dedicated to using the power of music to honor our veterans, inspire patriotism, and tell the Air Force story.

The Jae Sinnett Zero To 60 Quartet

9/7 and 9/8, 7:30 p.m.

$5 General Admission; $4 for Friends

Jae Sinnett is joined by saxophonist Ralph Bowen, pianist Allen Farnham, and bassist Terry Burrell in this late summer performance guaranteed to make your evening swing. Enjoy music from Jae's newest album, Zero to 60.

Ayreheart

9/21, 7:30 p.m.

$5 General Admission; $4 for Friends

Ayreheart is a progressive folk trio founded by lutenist Ronn McFarlane. The three members -- McFarlane on lute, Will Morris on fretless bass, violin and colascione, and Mattias Rucht on percussion -- all have backgrounds in rock and jazz, which comes through in their energetic performances.

John Bullard

10/5, 7:30 p.m.

$5 General Admission; $4 for Friends

John Bullard plays five-string banjo, which you might expect from a southerner, but with a gothic twist: he plays classical music. These aren't bluegrass renditions -- they're exact classical transcriptions done by someone who's been devotedly drawn to Baroque and Renaissance music for 30 years.

Nicole Zuraitis

10/19, 7:30

$5 General Admission; $4 for Friends

Nicole Zuraitis blends songwriting skill, an effervescent presence, and dazzling vocals in a consummate package that has thrilled audiences across Manhattan and the world. Nicole is the 2016 New York City Songwriting Competition Coffee Music Project Winner, 2015 second runner-up in the Sarah Vaughan International Jazz Vocal Competition, and the 2014 Herb Albert ASCAP Young Composer Awards Winner.

Higher Ground Big Band

10/25, 7:30 p.m.

FREE

Higher Ground is a community outreach group that seeks to uplift and inspire with swing, Latin, and jazz standards as well as modern big band arrangements. Members of Higher Ground are unpaid volunteers, many of whom are currently professional musicians in other orchestras or instrumental groups in the area.

The Nordic Fiddlers Bloc

11/2, 7:30 p.m.

$5 General Admission; $4 for Friends

The Nordic Fiddlers Bloc is a violin trio that masterfully blends the traditions of Norway, Sweden, and the Shetland Islands. Olav Luksengård Mjelva (Norway), Anders Hall (Sweden), and Kevin Henderson (Shetland Islands) have swiftly gained a reputation for their gripping and unique blend of fiddle music since the inception of the Bloc in early 2009. They maintain a firm focus on the traditions of their native lands while developing a sound that has been described as "meaningful," "intense," and "invigorating."

Ford's Colony Dance Band

11/29, 7:30 p.m.

FREE

The Ford's Colony Dance Band, with its seventeen musicians and vocalists, will perform a 90 minute "Happy Holidays" concert, playing many of your holiday big band and vocal favorites.

Bill Jenkins and the Virginia Mountain Boys

12/7, 7:30 p.m.

$5 General Admission; $4 for Friends

Singer, song-writer, and cross-picking guitar virtuoso Bill Jenkins and his string band, the Virginia Mountain Boys, bring to life the authentic ballads, camp meeting songs, and early bluegrass favorites of the Southern Appalachian Mountains.

Peninsula Concert Band

12/11, 7:30 p.m.

FREE

The Peninsula Concert Band has been performing in the Tidewater area for sixty-six years, and their mission is to educate, entertain, and enrich the community. Join them for a concert of holiday favorites.

LCV Project: An Acoustic Christmas

12/13, 7:30 p.m.

FREE

Join the LCV Project with Louis C. Vangieri for a delightful concert experience and hear holiday music in a new and unique way: through the gentle sounds of and creative arrangements for instrumental solo acoustic guitar. Local performer Peter Budnikas will be opening the show.