

Uplifting Reads

How To Walk Away by Katherine Center

After an accident, Margaret struggles to come to terms with family secrets, heartbreak and starting over before discovering love in an unexpected place.

The Lido by Libby Page

An anxiety-riddled reporter is assigned to cover the closing of a local center and bonds with an 86-year-old widow.

Three Things About Elsie by Joanna Cannon

An injured woman meditates on her complicated relationship with a best friend when a man they believed was dead joins her retirement community.

Two Steps Forward by Graeme Simsion and Anne Buist

An artist reeling from her husband's death and an engineer recovering from his divorce follow the pilgrim trail from France to Spain.

The Music Shop by Rachel Joyce

Frank, the owner of a music shop in a suburban community, resists the chance of a relationship with a young woman who could heal the old wounds from his past.

Hotel Silence by Auður A. Ólafsdóttir

A recently divorced man embarks on a life-changing journey in a war-torn country where he discovers the tools to mend the lives of those he encounters.

Eleanor Oliphant Is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman

A loner and an IT guy assist an elderly accident victim, forging a friendship that saves all three from isolation and unhappiness.

How To Stop Time by Matt Haig

A man who has survived for centuries considers defying his rule against falling in love when he becomes entranced by a captivating colleague.

Want more?

Speak to us at the Adult Services desk or request a personalized book list from Your Next Great Read!