READING MAP

Ever read a book and wanted to learn more about its setting, events, subject matter, or time period?

Reading maps are suggested reading brochures which aim to open up the world of the book for its reader by diagramming the internal life of the book. They allow readers to inhabit the text and its outward connections, thus encouraging them to follow a book's threads of interest stemming from any particular part of the work.

About the Author

Born in Jonesboro, Arkansas, John Grisham once dreamed of being a professional baseball player. Realizing he didn't have what it takes for a pro career, so he majored in accounting instead. After graduating from law school at Ole Miss in 1981, he went on to practice law for nearly a decade, specializing in criminal defense and personal injury litigation.

Then, one day while in court, Grisham overheard the harrowing testimony of a young rape victim and was inspired to start a novel exploring what would have happened if the girl's father had murdered her assailants. He spent the next three years working on A Time to Kill. But it wasn't until The Firm was published that his writing career exploded.

When he's not writing, Grisham devotes time to charitable causes. He also keeps up with his greatest passion- baseball. He now serves as the local Little League commissioner and built six ball fields on his property where little league teams have played.
